

Emergency Disaster Plan (reviewed annually)

The below information is to be completed with your probation officer so that your whereabouts are known in the event of a disaster which displaces you from your reported residence. Should this occur, contact the United States Probation Office at:

Emergency Residence(s) (to include name, address, and phone number): _____

How do you plan to support you and/or your family while unable to return to your residence and/or commute to your employment? _____

What is your relapse prevention plan? _____

What is your plan to remain compliant with treatment and goals during this stressful time?

You must register if required as a sex offender (with your registering agency) your emergency residence should you be displaced from your permanent address to remain compliant with sex offender registration laws.

Additionally, you must contact your probation officer and treatment provider immediately upon gaining access to a telephone:

Officer Work No.: _____

Officer Mobile No.: _____

Officer Email: _____

Provider No.: _____

I have reviewed my Emergency Disaster Plan with my probation officer and agree to abide by it should a disaster occur.

Offender Date

United States Probation Officer Date